Program Descriptions

Where the Buffalo (Bison) Roam: This 35 minute PowerPoint presentation looks at the quintessential American icon, how we brought the animal to the brink of extinction and where it stands today.

Chautauqua – Places & History: In Search of the Pacific Northwest: Oregon Council for the Humanities sponsored program by William G. Robbins, discusses the complex relationships between geography and history – the configurations of landscapes, topographical features, and climatic conditions.

The Original Meals on Wheels: Join Shary & Jerry Hammon for a discussion of food and cooking on the Oregon Trail.

Geology, Climatology, & its Effects on Plant Communities: Accompany an Interpreter on a short, relaxing 40 minute stroll around the grounds or a PowerPoint presentation for an in-depth look into the geology of Oregon and its effects on climate and the corresponding plant communities.

All About Oxen: Take a look into the most prominent beast of burden on the Oregon Trail in a 30 minute PowerPoint presentation.

Prelude to the Trail: Join Jerry Hammon on a 35 minute journey through some of the key events leading up to the great exodus to Oregon.

Ballads of the Oregon Trail: Join Linda Russell for her interpretation of period songs punctuated with diary excerpts from the Oregon Trail.

Old Melodeon Minstrels: Chris & Darla Bayer present a musical journey through history with their Oregon Trail period tunes.

Buffalo Bill Boycott: Bill Boycott presents a 45 minute musical interpretation of life on the Oregon Trail, playing fiddle, mandolin, banjo and guitar.

Bull-Whackin' Kass: Come out and enjoy the day at our wagon encampment where Sheryl Curtis will have two live oxen on display from August 30th- September 3rd from 10:00 – 3:00.

In the Leo Adler Theater:

Special interest videos on historical subjects, regional interest topics, and natural history shown daily.

Outdoors:

Demonstrations on gold panning and pioneer crafts, special interest hikes offered depending on weather and availability of interpreters. Check marquee in lobby for daily schedule.
